

Newsletter Winter Edition

December, 2025

Dear Gettinvolved Community Member,

Winter is here. A time to slow down, take a breath, and be with the people you care about. As the holidays approach and the year comes to a close, it's the perfect moment to pause, reflect on what truly matters, and enjoy meaningful connections during this special time of the year.

And with that warm spirit, we invite you to GettReconnected: Graduate Summit on March 5th '26. An inspiring evening to reconnect with yourself, your vision, and the Gettinvolved community. This year, your ticket includes a free Plus One! (Full invitation below!)

This year also marked the start of something meaningful under the wing of Gettinvolved Foundation: our very first contribution activity during Weekend 2 of the Trainer Academy. In the recap further down in this mail, we reflect on this first step of our Foundation where it is our vision to making a mark in projects of contribution.

In 2026, we look forward to more projects and opportunities to make a mark!

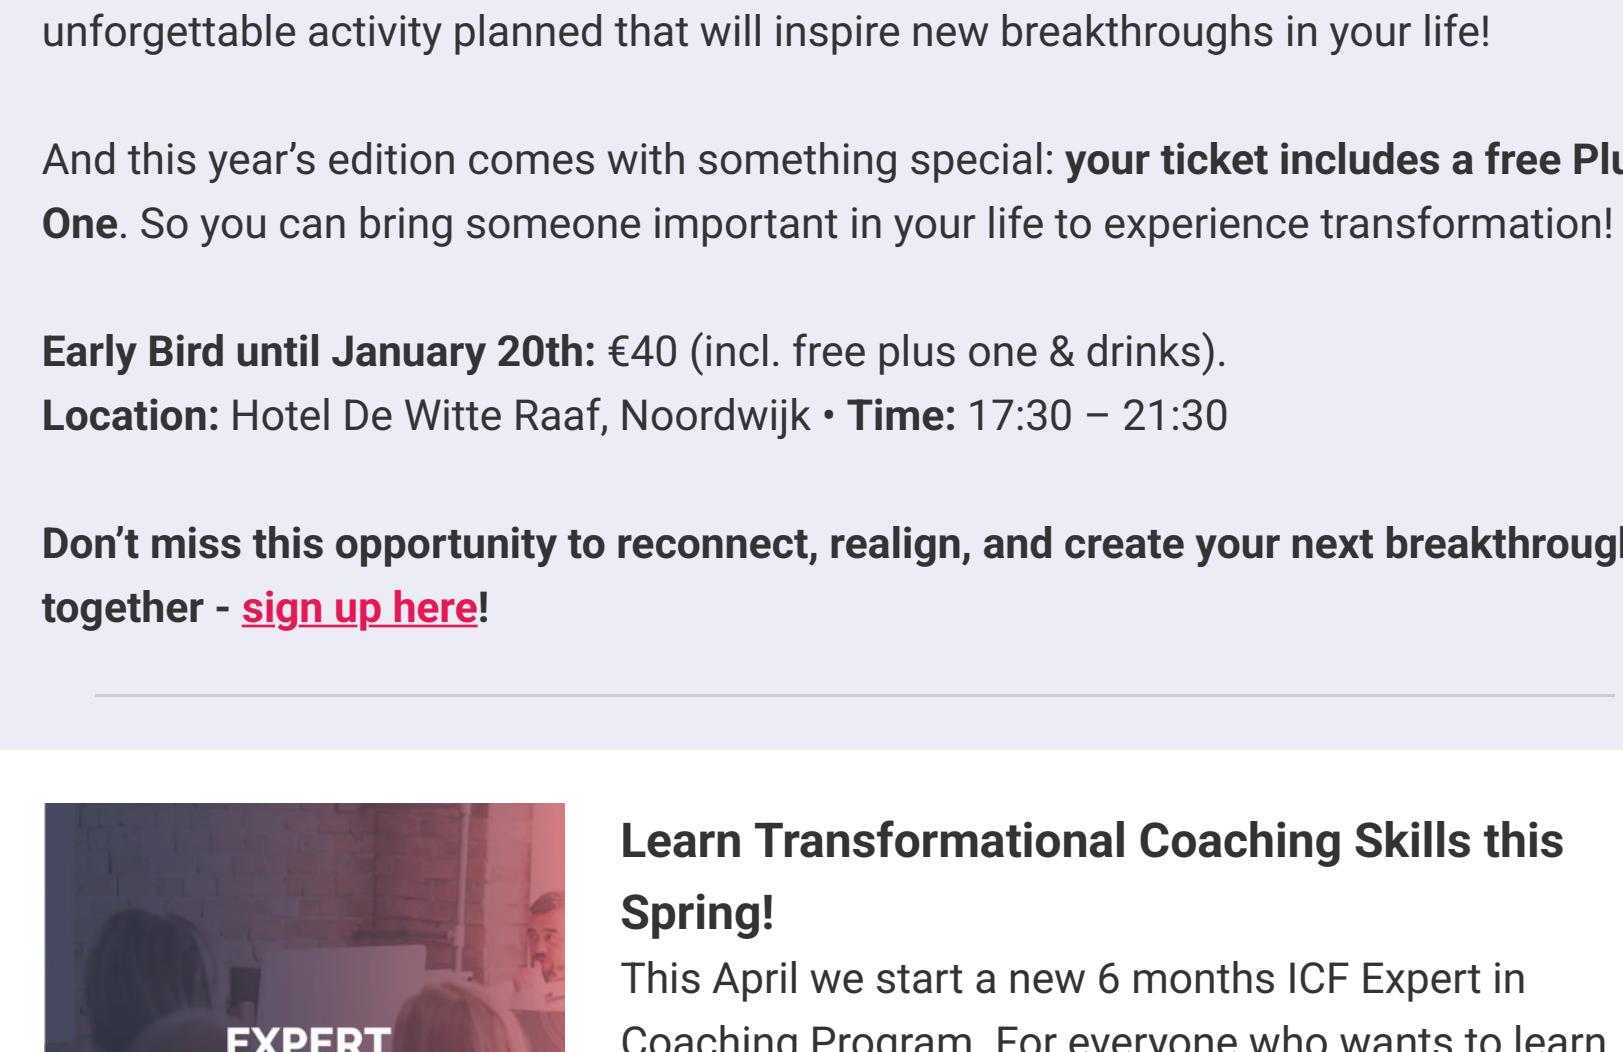

The New Year also brings a fresh wave of possibilities: the Expert in Coaching Program kicks off this April, offering a renewed opportunity to deepen your coaching skills in both your personal and professional life. New dates for the Engage Leadership Stages are also available, where you can practice your Advanced Course learnings, deepen your skills, and create tangible results in your life. Finally, The Shift returns this April, guiding you to learn how to grieve and let go in a healthy and transformative way.

We wish you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year and we look forward to seeing you again in the new year!

Hugs, Team Gettinvolved
