LEADERSHIP TRAININGS

Winter/Spring Edition

February, 2024

Dear Gettininvolved Community Member,

At the end of winter, close to spring, the piece of Christmas Holidays and action of New Year's resolutions, might already feel far away. Because life of 2024 started again and brought you to places you might not planned to go :-). Yet in this transition of one season to the next, this time of the year is all about goal setting, new perspectives and follow up. But how to set meaningful goals and transform these goals into reality? Read about it below! Also we invite you to be of support in the trainings and keep on working in transformation with us in our upcoming Leadership Stages and Expert in Coaching Program. And don't forget to become member of the Gettininvolved Socie Community App and like our socials!

Looking forward meeting you soon again!

Hugs, Team Gettininvolved

The key lies in the profound practice of goal setting and taking committed action on it. So how does that work? Read the blog here and find 50% discount on a coaching session!
